

Who'll step into your role
when it's time to move on?

Keep your business in the right hands.

You've worked hard to build your business. So you want to know its future is secure.

But what would happen if you, or your business partner, could no longer work?

Could you afford to buy each other out?

What would that mean for your family's finances?

A buy/sell arrangement can help the business change hands in an agreed manner, at an agreed price – with insurance used to fund the buy-out.
